	Happy Fall, Gentle Reader!
	The best way to enjoy leaves
Are you enjoying Oc rampire. I am okay wi	tober yet? I am in heaven. Cooler days and longer nights mean I sleep so much better. Seriously. I must be a th this.
And before you ask, the ne's going to be a sta	o speed, TEAR ME APART, my second standalone thriller, will be in stores around August 22 next year! nere's no rest for the weary; I've already started on my next book, my 19th novel, because that's how I roll. This andalone, too. If you're wondering why no Sam & Taylor yet, I talked about this decision on the Tao, though I k. Thanks for sticking with me!

Speaking of early nights, here are a few top-notch thrillers to keep you company in the dark...

October's Recipe: One-Pan, Man!

One-Pan Roasted Sausage & Root Veggies

Who doesn't love the flavors of fall? The sweetness, the spices, the starchy veggies that warm you from the inside-out. This month's recipe is a one-pan wonder from Assistant Amy, perfect for a week night when you don't feel like babysitting the stove.

Feel free to mix and match your meat and veggies—I'm only providing technique here. The sky's the limit!

Easy AND no clean-up? YES!!!

That's it from me! Carve a pumpkin or two, enjoy your candy corn, and we'll talk again soon.

XOXO,

Let's be friends. I don't bite!
